

Expressive arts and design:

Creating with materials

Natural art using leaves, conkers and pine cones

Creating "funky pumpkins" using different media

Being imaginative and expressive

Learning about pulse and rhythm and moving in time to music

Communication and Language

Listening, Attention and Understanding

Listen to a range of traditional tales

Use puppets to retell stories

Speaking

Learning to take turns in conversations and how to listen to others

Physical Development:

Fine Motor Skills:

Using a range of construction materials to join in different ways

Using playdough to develop muscle strength

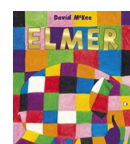

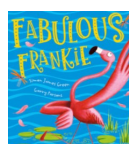

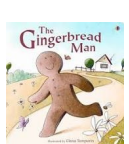

Gross Motor Skills:

Gymnastics—exploring different rolls and balances

Throwing and catching with different equipment

Crocus EYFS Summer Term Curriculum Map

Key Texts:

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Self Regulation

Trying new activities and experiences

Follow simple instructions given by my teacher

Managing Self

Understanding class and school rules

Building Relationships

Turn taking and sharing

Working cooperatively with new peers

Understanding the World:

Past and Present

Who was Mary Anning?

The Natural World

Investigating seasonal changes from summer to Autumn. Going on an Autumn walk and making observations

People, Culture and Community

Making maps of our school and local area

Literacy:

Comprehension

Retelling and sequencing familiar stories using images and puppets

Joining in and recalling a range of familiar poems and rhymes

Word Reading

Know which graphemes to use for different Recognise the phonemes for a range of taught graphemes

Begin to read simple CVC words and some tricky words

Writing

Using initial sounds to label

Learning to write their own name

Mathematics:

Number

Subitising up to 5

Representing numbers up to 5 in different ways

Recognising numbers 1-5

Numerical patterns

Making patterns with numbers and shapes

Sorting and comparing shapes, patterns and numbers